

The TAG Studio

For 20 years, the passion of TAG Studio has been designing for the luxury resort world. Our experience allows us to understand the needs of the owner and to design to their individual personality. We take great pride in our personal service, our ability to communicate well with clients and for being on-time and on-budget.

TAG Galyean, NCARB, AIA, RIBA, ASLA, IIDA is an award-winning Master Designer with 40 years of architectural, landscape and interior design expertise acquired at leading, independent luxury resorts in the United States. TAG is the founder and Master Design conceptualist of TAG Studio in West Virginia, a family of resort design professionals. Galyean is best known for combining innovative and visionary design principles with a comprehensive understanding of the resort industry.

TAG has garnered wide acclaim for his exceptional and diverse pool and spa designs for The Lodge at Pebble Beach, The Greenbrier Hotel, Turnberry Isle Resort, The Hotel Hershey, Laquinta Resort and Club, The Spa at Coeur d'Alene and The Broadmoor Hotel. He is well known for his Master Designer role leading the design team for the Broadmoor's twelve year rise to become the only independent five-star, five-diamond resort in the United States. TAG was also the Master Designer for all Hershey Resort and Golf properties and is responsible for the design of their famous chocolate spa treatments.

TAG received NCARB certification in 1971. He attended Stanford University and Pratt Institute and received a bachelor of architecture degree with honors, followed by graduate coursework at New York University's Real Estate Institute. He has served as Governor of Cranbrook Schools, thesis advisor at MIT, Resort Master Plan speaker for the Harvard University Graduate School of Design, guest lecturer at the Cornell School of Hotel Administration, and served as a judge for the Gold Key Awards. TAG was also the 1998 Hospitality Design Platinum Circle Award recipient. TAG resides in Lewisburg, West Virginia where he is an active and important part of the Greenbrier Valley community, including serving as President for the Lewisburg Foundation, a non-profit organization committed to preserving and beautifying the historical city.

TAG also operates TAG Interiors. TAG Interiors is one of the nation's leading full service interior design firms specializing in Resort Residential properties. Services include interior architecture, interior design, purchasing, and installation.
